

Concord.

Death of Mrs. Gilbert.

Mrs. Ellen Gilbert died Sunday morning, Jan. 26, after an illness extending over 20 years, with chronic tuberculosis. She had been confined to the house but a few months, but had suffered extremely, and death came as a great relief. Mrs. Gilbert was born at Lunenburg, May 28, 1850, the daughter of Russell and Louisa (Chase) Powers. She was one of eight children: Mary, Thaddeus, Elizabeth, Lavinia, and Jennie, all deceased; A. C. Powers of Lunenburg; and Frank R. Powers of Lyndonville. Her early life was spent in Lunenburg. July 1, 1871, she was married to Horace Gilbert, and for many years they lived on the Gilbert farm. They adopted three children, Mary Stone, now Mrs. Ramsay of Walpole, N. H.; Jennie, Mrs. Clarence McKelvey of East Concord; and Bernard, a medical student at Vermont University. Mr. Gilbert died June 21, 1903. After his death, Mrs. Gilbert moved to her village home, and worked very hard, oftentimes beyond her strength, to keep the little family together. Funeral services were held from her late home, Tuesday, Jan. 28, at one o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. F. Welch of St. Johnsbury, assisted by Rev. Grant Van Blarcom. The ladies of the Universalist choir sang several selections. The casket was surrounded by beautiful flowers, placed there by loving hands in appreciation of her life. The interment was in the family lot in the new part of the cemetery. Those called here to attend the funeral were Bernard Gilbert, Burlington; Mrs. Clarence McKelvey, East Concord; Mrs. Mary Ramsay, Walpole, N. H.; Frank Powers and sons Roy and Glenn of Lyndonville; A. C. Powers of Lunenburg; Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald and Frank Powers of East Concord; Mr. and Mrs. George Chase of East St. Johnsbury; George Sanborn of Miles Pond.

Remember the Minstrel Show to be given this evening by members of the Lyndonville Military Band. This will surely be one of the best local entertainments ever given here, and deserves good patronage, not wholly for its value, but since it is for the benefit of our band, of which we are all proud and want to support. Some very good music is promised, and the songs, dances, specialties and jokes, are all calculated to excite the risibles of the most melancholy attendant. The Schlitzbaum Sextette is sure to be a winning card, and all are agog to see this new aggregation of talent.

The Shakespeare and Lyndon Women's Clubs unite this year in giving their Gentlemen's Night, which will take place in the Darling hall, Thursday evening, Feb. 12, from five to eight o'clock.
